

As Senior Vice President of Construction for Duke Realty's East Region, Indiana market and Midwest Healthcare, Peter D. Harrington focuses on Duke Realty projects, as well as third-party construction and built-to-suit developments. He joined Duke Realty in 1993 as Manager of Preconstruction Services and also served as Director of Preconstruction Services and Construction Manager for Indiana.

Pete received his Bachelor of Science, Construction Technology from Purdue University. He is highly involved in his community and serves as a board member for the Indiana Council for Economic Education, a charter member of Fr. Louis Goottee Knights of Columbus and a chairman of Nativity

Catholic Church building committee. He also works with Habitat for Humanity.

Some various highlights in Pete's career are the following:

- Department of Defense (BRAC 133), Alexandria, VA – 17-story, $1 billion, 1,750,000-square foot secure office complex, LEED® Gold
- Wishard Hospital – 273,000-square foot medical/faculty office building attached to the new Wishard Replacement Hospital
- 500,000-square foot distribution center for Hachette
- 1 million-square foot Pearson Education distribution center
- Multiple distribution centers across the country for Lowe's totaling more than 10 million square feet
- Simon Corporate Headquarters – 13-story, 350,000-square foot office and below-grade parking structure; Indianapolis, IN
- Numerous 1 million-square foot fulfillment centers across the country for Amazon.com