

DirectEmployers Foundation

---

Chris Ferguson is the Staffing Manager for Duke Realty. Chris possesses fifteen years of experience in staffing and talent management. Chris joined Duke Realty in August of 2006. In his current role, Chris has the overall responsibility for managing and further developing effective recruiting and hiring procedures and practices that result in attracting and retaining the highest qualified candidates for all positions within Duke Realty. Chris holds a Bachelor's Degree from Ball State University.

Prior to his employment at Duke Realty, Chris worked at Bowen, LGG Associates, and Ajilon. While working at Bowen, he partnered with hiring managers to develop and implement recruiting plans and strategies as well manage full cycle recruiting process for positions in construction.

Chris is married and has two very active and athletic children, and enjoys watching them compete in their sporting events. When Chris is not watching his children compete, he enjoys golfing and spending time with his family. Chris is a member of SHRM. Chris and his family reside in Noblesville, Indiana.